HIGHTY HARD WORK.

Some men have to do their work under all sorts of unusual and adverse circumstances that are just as trying upon their health and physical condion as if they were soldiers ighting and marching day and night in a hard camaign. When the condi-tions under which a man works are abnormal and unhealthy he needs to take special precau-tions to build himself up to withstand the extra strain.

The British steamship Ariosto, Capt. Baines, went ashore near Cape Hatters at 4 o'clock on Sunday morning and 21 men of her crew were drowned.

Besides rows of trenches on both sides of the river they have extensive lines of barbed wire. Wires were also concealed under the water at the fords which General Buller's men attempted to cross. General Gatacre has put into operation a modified plan of reconcentration in Northern Cape Colony It is similar in many respects to the plan that was adopted by General Weyler in Guba, except that it does not apply in Cuba, except that it does not apply to persons residing more than 12 miles from a camp. General Gatacre's object is to check Dutch revolt and to prevent letails of military movements from being carried to the Boer armies by spice. The Holy Door in St. Pet r's was pened at noon on Saturday by Pope Leo with just such splendid ceremony as charac eriz d a similar ceremony seventy-five years ago. With this solemn religious rite the Holy Year was inagurated, and the long season of repentence of sin, the fulfillment of penances and recital of prayers was opened. It was a magnificent and impr ssive observance, favored by fice weather, and an ecormous concourse had assembled in the rasilica to wit-
